

Want to stay another year in OZ? Now you can!

Working holidaymakers who have worked as a seasonal worker in regional Australia for a minimum of three months while on their first working holiday visa, will be eligible to apply for a second working holiday visa.

To meet the requirements for a second working holiday visa, seasonal work and regional Australia are defined as:

Seasonal work: harvesting and/or packing of fruit and vegetable crops, pruning and trimming vines and trees, thinning and trimming flowers and bunches and general maintenance crop work.

Regional Australia: anywhere in Australia except Sydney, Newcastle, Wollongong, the NSW Central Coast, Brisbane, the Gold Coast, Perth, Melbourne or the ACT. Any area identified at: www.jobsearch.gov.au/harvesttrail requiring harvest workers comes within the definition of 'regional Australia'.

If you intend to apply for a second working holiday visa you will need evidence of the length of time you've spent working as a seasonal worker in regional Australia.

Before commencing work in a regional area, you should obtain a copy of Form 1263 Working Holiday visa: Employment Verification from their nearest DIMIA office, or from the forms section of the DIMIA website at: www.immi.gov.au/allforms/pdf/1263.pdf

This form should be used to record all employment details and will be required when completing your application for a second working holiday visa.

Information about seasonal work opportunities in regional Australia can be found on the Harvest Trail website at: www.jobsearch.gov.au/harvesttrail
